

Code of Ethics

This Code of Ethics is promulgated by the Board of Directors under section 406 of the Sarbanes Oxley Act of 2002, the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission promulgated thereunder, and the NASDAQ Stock Market Listing Rules and applies to all employees, and officers and directors of Lam Research Corporation (the “Company”). It contains standards reasonably necessary to promote: honest and ethical conduct, including the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships; full, fair, accurate, timely, and understandable disclosure in the periodic reports required to be filed by the issuer and in other public communications; and compliance with applicable governmental laws, rules and regulations.

You must:

1. Act with honesty and integrity, ethically handling actual or apparent conflicts of interest in personal and professional relationships.
2. Produce or cause to be produced, full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in reports and documents that the Company files with or submits to the Securities and Exchange Commission and in other public communications.
3. Comply with applicable governmental laws, rules and regulations.
4. Promptly report any violation of this Code of Ethics to the Company’s legal department.

You will be held accountable for your adherence to this Code of Ethics. Your failure to observe the terms of this Code of Ethics may result in disciplinary action, up to and including immediate termination of your employment. Reported or suspected violations of this Code of Ethics will be addressed in accordance with the Company’s Ethics and Compliance Program Charter, including the non-retaliation provisions.

Any request by you for a waiver of any provision of this Code of Ethics must be in writing and addressed to the Company’s legal department, which will then take appropriate actions, including the submission of proper requests to the Company’s Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer or its Board of Directors.

With regard to senior financial officers, other executive officers and members of the Board of Directors, the Board will have the sole and absolute discretionary authority, acting upon any recommendation as may be made by the Audit Committee, to approve any waiver from this Code of Ethics. Any such waiver for senior financial officers, other executive officers or members of the Board of Directors from this Code of Ethics, and the reasons for such waiver, will be disclosed within four business days on Form 8-K or any other means approved by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the NASDAQ Stock Market Listing Rules. For purposes of this Code of Ethics, the term “senior financial officer” means the chief executive officer, chief financial officer and principal accounting officer (or, if there is no such accounting officer, the controller), and persons performing similar functions, and the term “executive officer” means those persons who are “officers” of the Company for purposes of Rule 16a-1(f) under the Securities and Exchange Act.
